Super Bowl parties are one of the top at-home party events of the year. Super Bowl parties have become much more than a gathering of football lovers. In fact, many people attending these parties don't love football as much as they love the excuse to get together with friends.

Who wants to spend the greater part of the Super Bowl fetching cups, opening bottles of wine, beer, and eyeing the ice bucket? Hire BartenderGirl™ to provide you with a professional, insured and attractive staff to prepare your favorite drink or serve your favorite beer while you watch the game.

Whether you're planning a Super Bowl party out of love for the game or just the desire to host a fun, relaxing party, here are tips for making this a super bash:

SUPER BOWL PARTY FOOD IDEAS

- I. Plan simple, portable foods. A buffet is your only option. Nobody wants to be sitting down at a table to eat when they'd rather be screaming at a television set or two, or hire our cocktail server to bring the food to you $125.00 (4 Hours)
- II. The fans of the Chicago Bears are most likely pulling out their favorite Chicago-style deep dish pizza recipes and loaded hot dogs.

III. Fans of the Indianapolis Colts are busy dusting off their favorite tailgating recipes that travel with them to the annual Indianapolis 500 race, such as wings, dips and ribs.

IV. Don't prepare recipes that will keep you locked in the kitchen all night, hire BartenderGirl Catering Services. You should enjoy the Super Bowl Party too.

V. Pick up veggie, cheese and cold cut plates and a six-foot long sandwich or two from a deli and have all the food laid out on a table within sight of the TV. Don't make your guests choose between eating and watching the game, have BartenderGirl Cocktail wait staff bring them to you.

SUPER BOWL DECORATION IDEAS

VI. If you feel compelled to decorate, think team colors, footballs, team jerseys, goal posts, and pennants, put on all your paraphernalia. But don't knock yourself out. Most eyes will be more impressed by the clear reception on your television. If you most here are few items that will help you decorate: Party Supplies for Super Bowl.

VII. Order a "Super Bowl Party in a Box" that includes plates, napkins, cups and a football snack bowl. Link to party items

VIII. Have one room set aside without a television for partygoers who aren't interested in the game and would like a quieter place to talk, and catch up on the new gossips.

IX. Likewise, set up one room with a television for serious football fans who don't want to be distracted by idle chatter.

X. Since this is a weekend, you may want to set up a kids' room in the back of the house that's stocked with treats, games, a TV and VCR/DVD, PlayStation or Nintendo Game Cube.

XI. Set up as many televisions as you have available around the party area. Rent our projection screen only $95.00 + Tax and Delivery

XII. Have lots of paper towels, napkins and rug cleaner handy for messes created during exciting plays.

XIII. Keep a little spare change and small bills handy for any betting pools that just might pop up over the course of the evening, and to tip the Bartender.

- XIV. If you're going to have guests who are rooting for different teams, establish an imaginary line (or for fun, "draw" one with masking tape) down the center of the room. Decorate each side in one team's colors.

SUPER BOWL PARTY COSTUME IDEAS

- XV. Simple wear your team jerseys or hat.

SUPER BOWL PARTY ACTIVITIES

- XVI. Invest in a few foam "bad-call bricks" to throw at the TV so your guests can express their feelings about the refs without doing damage to your house.
- XVII. Have everyone write down who they think will win and what the final score will be before the game starts. Award a silly prize, like a big football piñata, to the person who comes the closest.
- XVIII. Another fun game to play throughout the game is to pour shooters that represent each of the teams playing and choose your terms:

When one team scores, the opposing fans must shoot the scoring team's shot as a penalty. When one team scores, the scoring team fans shoot their own shot in victory.

You can break this shooter game down to whatever event (penalties, sacs, etc.) you like; a decision that depends on the game's pace and the participants willingness to get drunk.

This can be a really fun way to enjoy the game as it can lead to some unexpected intoxication. Just be sure you have a designated driver available to get those unintentional drunks home.

SUPER BOWL PARTY DRINKS

- XIX. Plan on plenty of beverages, and don't forget the beer and the BartenderGirl Staff to mix-up those specialty drinks. Indianapolis Colt Drink or Chicago Bears Drink
- XX. Buy several six-packs of beer. Keep the beer in a cooler close by so you don't have to run to the fridge when it's third and inches. Restock the cooler at halftime. Or hire our BartenderGirl to do it for you!
- XXI. Choose one or two cocktails or a punch, like Touchdown Tea, to serve, and stock up on the ingredients.

☎ 800.665.0804 ☎ Fax 909.864.0678 ☎ ✉ info@bartendergirl.com 🌐 www.bartendergirl.com

- XXII. Show someone else how to make the drinks as well so that you are not the only one mixing. But remember this person may not be certified and insured to protect you from liability so them again hire BartenderGirl Professional Certified, and insured bartenders.
- XXIII. Mixing multiple drinks at once also saves time.
- XXIV. Find football themed cocktail recipes collected from fan playbooks.
- XXV. We have created two cocktails for you based on this year team colors, both drinks are made with blue Hawaiian, but if you would like to substitute Blue Curacao to obtain the blue color use vodka UV (the blue vodka)
- XXVI. Drinks: Indianapolis Colt Drink , Chicago Bears Drink, Touchdown Tea

TIPS & WARNINGS

- ✓ Since this is a drinking event, you may want to offer "free pick-up and delivery" so no one has to worry about drinking and driving. Arrange to pick everyone up before the game and drop everyone off after it's over.
- ✓ Protect your furniture and furnishings from accidents the best you can. Clear everything unnecessary from tables and end tables and set out plenty of coasters.
- ✓ There is usually someone at the party who isn't interested in football, enlist their help for clean up, food prep, etc.
- ✓ Move any fragile or breakable items out of the room before the game starts. You don't want someone to leap up yelling, "You call that holding? He wasn't even touching him!" and break your wife's favorite vase.
